

Notice regarding an alleged breach by ALP-001

Vimercate (Monza Brianza), March 27, 2026 – Esprinet Group reports that it has been contacted via e-mail by the ALP-001 cybercriminal organization which claims to have breached the Esprinet network and exfiltrated data owned by the company. The Group, which adheres to the highest security standards to ensure the safety of information, immediately took steps to verify this report. Initial analysis of the company's systems was conducted and has not revealed any breach or data exfiltration.

The Group is working with specialized partners to analyze the case. It is also communicating with the relevant Authorities.

At the time of writing, any evidence – from ALP-001 or any other third parties – of any actual data exfiltration nor of the veracity of ALP-001's claim has been received.

As a result, there is currently no impact on employees, customers, suppliers, or the company itself, and any statements shared publicly as of today are to be considered mere speculation.

The Group will provide updates as appropriate regarding any significant developments.
